

PRIVACY POLICY

Last updated: August 12, 2024

The Miller Firm, LLC ("us", "we", or "our") operates www.themillerfirmatl.com (the "Site"). This page informs you of our policies regarding the collection, use and disclosure of Personal Information we receive from users of the Site. We have created this privacy policy (this "Privacy Policy") because we know that you care about how information you provide to us is used and shared. This Privacy Policy applies to our information collection and use practices: (i) online when you visit any of our websites, including, without limitation, any ancillary websites and forms created by us (the "Websites"); and (ii) offline when you provide information to us.

Capitalized terms not defined in this Privacy Policy shall have the meaning set forth in our Terms of Service and/or our Service Agreements.

Acceptance of Terms

By visiting any of our Websites, you shall agree to the terms of this Privacy Policy and any accompanying Terms of Service, both of which govern your use of the Websites. By providing us information offline, you are agreeing to the terms of this Privacy Policy.

The Information We Collect

While operating the Websites and/or interacting with you, we will collect (and/or receive) the following types of information.

Personal Information

When you sign up to receive any of our newsletters, respond to a survey, or purchase any service, you may be required to provide us with personal information about yourself, such as your name, address, email address, and phone number. All information we collect and/or receive that can be used to identify you is considered "Personal Information." All information that you disclose on Websites related to us providing legal services is considered "Personal Information."

Personal Information that we automatically collect when you use the Websites, including, without limitation:

- IP addresses, which may consist of a static or dynamic IP address and will sometimes point to a specific identifiable computer or device; browser type and language; referring and exit pages and URLs; date and time; amount of time spent on particular pages; what sections of the Websites you visit; and similar data; and
- Information about your device, including the type of device; universally unique ID ("UUID"); advertising identifier ("IDFA"); MAC address; operating system and version (e.g., iOS, Android or Windows); carrier and country location; hardware and processor information (e.g., storage, chip speed, camera resolution, NFC enabled); network type (WiFi, 3G, 4G, LTE); and similar data.

Financial Information

We may require you to disclose banking information and/or payment information to disperse or collect payments related to the legal services you are receiving. Financial Information can be considered sensitive Personal Information.

Cookies

Information that we collect using "cookie" technology. Cookies are small packets of data that a website stores on your computer's or mobile device's hard drive so that your computer will "remember" information about your visit. We may use both session cookies (which expire once you close your web browser) and persistent cookies (which stay on your computer until you delete them) to help us collect other Personal Information and to enhance your experience using the Websites. If you do not want us to place a cookie on your hard drive, you may be able to turn that feature off on your computer or mobile device. Please consult your Internet browser's documentation for information on how to do this and how to delete persistent cookies. However, if you decide not to accept cookies from us, the Websites may not function properly.

Information Shared with Third- Parties

We may share Personal Information about you and your case with third parties in order to provide customer support, provide you with legal services, and/or to comply with a legal obligation.

Specifically, The Miller Firm, LLC uses MyCase, legal software, to manage your case and your Personal Information. For more information on MyCase and their privacy policies please see <https://www.mycase.com/privacy-policy/>. By providing your Personal Information via Websites, you consent to sharing your Personal Information with MyCase to provide you with legal services.

All Third-Parties are required to treat Personal Information shared by us in accordance with this Policy.

Information Collected by or Through Third-Party Advertising Companies

We may share Personal Information about your activity on the Websites with third parties for the purpose of tailoring, analyzing, managing, reporting, and optimizing advertising you see on the Websites and elsewhere. These third parties may use cookies, pixel tags (also called web beacons or clear gifs), and/or other technologies to collect Personal Information for such purposes. Pixel tags enable us, and these third-party advertisers, to recognize a browser's cookie when a browser visits the site on which the pixel tag is located in order to learn which advertisement brings a user to a given site.

Accessing and Modifying Personal Information and Communication Preferences

If you have registered for the Websites, you may access, review, and make changes to your Personal Information, Financial Information, and certain other information by following the instructions found on the Websites. Customers cannot opt out of receiving transactional emails related to their account or their Orders. We will use commercially reasonable efforts to process such requests in a timely manner. You should be aware.

How We Use and Share Information

We use the Personal Information, the Financial Information, and the other Information (collectively, the "Information") to provide our services.

We may also use and/or share Information as described below.

- We will access, use, and share the Information as required to provide service and to support you.
- We may employ other companies and individuals to perform functions on our behalf. Examples may include providing technical assistance, customer service, and marketing assistance. These other companies and individuals will have access to the Information only as necessary to perform their functions and to the extent permitted by law.
- In an ongoing effort to better understand our Visitors, customers, and our products and services, we may analyze Information in aggregate form in order to operate, maintain, manage, and improve the Websites and/or our services. This aggregate information does not identify you personally. We may share this aggregate data with our affiliates, agents, and business partners. We may also disclose aggregated user statistics in order to describe our services to current and prospective business partners and to other third parties for other lawful purposes.
- We may share some or all of your Information with any of our parent companies, subsidiaries, joint ventures, or other companies under common control with us.
- As we develop our businesses, we might sell or buy businesses or assets. In the event of a corporate sale, merger, reorganization, sale of assets, dissolution, or similar event, the Information may be part of the transferred assets.
- To the extent permitted by law, we may also disclose the Information: (i) when required by law, court order, or other government or law enforcement authority or regulatory agency; or (ii) whenever we believe that disclosing such Information is necessary or advisable, for example, to protect the rights, property, or safety of The Miller Firm, LLC or others.

Information You Share

Please keep in mind that whenever you voluntarily make your Personal Information available to third parties — for example on message boards or web logs; during webinars, classes, telephone conferences, or coaching calls; or in comment or chat areas — that information can be seen, collected, heard, and/or used by others besides us. We cannot be responsible for any unauthorized third-party use of such information.

How We Protect Personal Information

We take reasonable steps to protect Personal Information from loss, misuse, and unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction. Please understand, however, that no security system is impenetrable. We cannot guarantee the security of our databases, nor can we guarantee that Personal Information that you supply will not be intercepted while being transmitted to and from us over the Internet. E-mail sent to or from the Websites may not be secure, and you should therefore take special care in deciding what information you send to us via email.

Important Notice to Non-U.S. Residents

It is important to note that the Websites and their servers are operated in the United States. If you are located outside of the United States, please be aware that any Information you provide to us will be transferred to the United States. By using the Websites and by providing us Information when using our services, you hereby irrevocably consent to this transfer and our use of the Information and data provided by you in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

Children

We do not knowingly collect Personal Information from children under the age of 18 through the Websites. If you are under 18, please do not give us any Personal Information. We encourage parents and legal guardians to monitor their children's Internet usage and to help enforce our Privacy Policy by instructing their children to never provide Personal Information through the Websites without their permission. If you have reason to believe that a child under the age of 18 has provided Personal Information to us, please contact us, and we will endeavor to delete that information from our databases.

California Residents

We do not monitor, recognize, or honor any behavioral advertising opt-out or do not track mechanisms, including general web browser "Do Not Track" settings and/or signals. We Do not Sell Personal Information. We are not within the scope of the California Consumer Protection Act ("CCPA"), however, if you would like to exercise your rights, please contact us via the Contact section below.

External Websites

The Websites may contain links to third-party websites. We have no control over the privacy practices or the content of any of our business partners, advertisers, sponsors, or other websites to which we provide links. As such, we are not responsible for the content or the privacy policies of those third-party websites. You should check the applicable third party privacy policy and terms of use when visiting any other websites.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy is effective as of the date stated at the top of this Privacy Policy. We may change this Privacy Policy from time to time. By accessing the Websites and/or using our services after we make any such changes to this Privacy Policy, you are deemed to have accepted such changes. Please be aware that, to the extent permitted by applicable law, our use of the Information is governed by the Privacy Policy in effect at the time we collect the Information. Please refer to this Privacy Policy on a regular basis.

How to Contact Us

If you have questions about this Privacy Policy, please contact us via email at steven@millerfirmatl.com with "Privacy Policy" in the subject line.
